

Joe's Bistro is named in memory of Councillor Joe Lowe, a remarkable man who dedicated over 40 years of his life to public service and to the people of South Lanarkshire. Joe was a strong supporter of Kilbryde Hospice from the very beginning and became a Trustee in 2013. With his trademark humour, charm, and determination, Joe played a vital role in helping us build our 12-bed hospice and secure its place at the heart of the community.

Fondly nicknamed "JLo" by our fundraising team, he was known for "knowing the right people" and for persuading others to lend their support to the hospice cause. But above all, Joe was admired for his kindness, compassion, and unwavering belief that everyone deserved care, dignity, and respect.

By naming our bistro after him, we honour Joe's legacy and ensure his spirit of warmth and welcome continues to be felt here every day. As you enjoy your visit, we hope you experience a little of the community spirit that Joe worked so hard to nurture.
